

DORIC STORY and POETRY COMPETITION

Stories can be on any subject within the required number of words and containing a reasonable percentage of Doric words. Depending on entry numbers some sections may be amalgamated or expanded. There are trophies and certificates to be won.

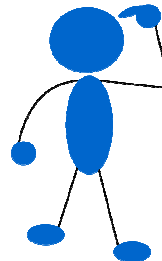

NUMBER of Words

Junior 1	10 years and under	100 to 200
Junior	11 years	150 to 500
Int.	12 years	150 to 500
Extra	13 to 17 years	150 to 500
Open		700 to 2000

Poems can be any length, on any subject, so long as they contain a reasonable percentage of Doric words

SECTIONS

Junior 1	~ 10 years and under
Junior	~ 11 years
Intermediate	~ 12 years
Extra	~ 13 to 17 years
Open	~

NOTE CLOSING DATE

The Buchan Heritage Society runs this competition every year in the hope that children and adults will be encouraged to understand and explore the richness and diversity of the Doric language, enrich their vocabulary through listening and research, help keep the traditions and culture of the North East alive, use the language and words that many of us use every day of our lives and have fun in the process. We encourage everyone, whether Doric speaking or otherwise to help keep alive and preserve something very unique so that we keep it safe for the future in an world of uncertainties. CLOSING DATE 31st March 2017 each entry should have a completed entry form which should be sent to R Duncan 4a Inn Brae Longside AB424XN.

For more details and entry forms see web site www.buchanheritagesociety.co.uk

Choose - Festival Choose appropriate form from the list

The Buchan Heritage Society

Scottish Charities No.SC036964

Buchan Heritage Society Doric Writing

Closing Date 31st March 2017

see web page for entry forms

Doric Writing

Pieces should be previously unpublished and in the Open section should NOT have the author's name on the piece but on a separate sheet. Poems can be any length, on any subject, so long as they contain a reasonable percentage of Doric words. Stories can be on any subject within the required number of words and containing a reasonable percentage of Doric words.

All entries require a completed entry form.

Awards given are 1st 2^d 3rd Highly Commended and Commended and a trophy awarded for each section winner.

Doric Poetry Writing

Junior 1 10 years and under

Junior 11 years

Intermediate 12 years

Extra Section if required

Open

Doric Short Story Writing

WORDS

Junior 1 10 and under 150 to 300

Junior 11 years 150 to 500

Intermediate 12 years 150 to 500

Extra Section if required

Open 700 to 2000

PLEASE NOTE - CLOSING DATE IS END OF MARCH 2017
NOT APRIL AS IN PREVIOUS YEARS

www.buchanheritagesociety.co.uk

Scottish Charities No: SC03690